- Research & Analytical Skills – experienced in gathering information, evaluating options, and presenting clear solutions
- Data Entry & Technical Troubleshooting – comfortable with structured, repetitive, high-accuracy digital work
- Clear Communication – fluent in English (Expert) and Cebuano (Native); confident communicating with US clients
- Independent & Reliable – manages projects end-to-end with minimal supervision; punctual and consistent
- Fast Learner & Coachable – quickly picks up new systems, tools, and procedures; takes feedback well
- Basic computer literacy (Microsoft Office) and comfortable with digital/POS-style systems

WORK EXPERIENCE

Freelance Web Developer

April 2026 – August 2026

Self-Employed, Remote — Client: English with Chevy (English coaching service)

- Worked directly and independently with a US-based client, translating their goals into an accurate, working solution with the same precision and client-first approach this role requires
- Managed a project end-to-end without close supervision, staying organized, meeting deadlines, and maintaining consistent quality throughout
- Built accessibility features (dark mode, adjustable text sizing, dyslexia-friendly font), reflecting close attention to detail and care for how end users actually experience the work

Sales Lady

Summer 2015 (3-month contract)

RIA Thrifty Mart

- Assisted walk-in customers with product inquiries, purchases, and store navigation
- Handled cash register transactions accurately, including cash handling and change which earned an early training in precision under time pressure
- Restocked shelves and maintained a clean, organized store presentation
- Built foundational customer service habits: patience, friendliness, and clear communication with the public
